

ROLE: Curbside Assistant

ROLE DESCRIPTION: Create a safe, accessible environment when people first arrive.

REASON: Some attendees have trouble safely navigating the parking lot, especially in inclement weather.

REPORTS TO: Curbside Assistant Captain (First Impressions)

Our Mission: Building relationships, seeing Jesus transform lives.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Application
- Regular attendee
- Training

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Check email weekly for important info and updates.
2. Arrive 30 minutes before the service begins.
3. Pray for Gods' leading.
4. Wear nametag.
5. Put out parking sign and cones.
6. Get Senior Sure-Step (RV) for use with bus.
7. Get a wheelchair in place.
8. Be in position 25 minutes before service start time.
9. Stand outside and start greeting and watching for opportunities to help people out of cars.
10. Help people into church building as needed, offering to hang up coat. If busy, hand off to usher or ask for help.
11. If parking car, bring keys back inside and hand to owner.
12. Go out and help people from parking lot, if icy.
13. Help greeters, as needed.
14. Stay at your post at least 15 minutes into the service.
15. After final service, return signs, cones, and wheelchair to storage.
16. Return nametag.
17. If unable to fulfill your volunteering time, find your own replacement and notify Team Captain.
18. Be on the lookout for additional First Impressions Team volunteers. Invite them to join you. Coordinate with Community Life Director.
19. Recommended attire is nice casual—neat, not sloppy. Be sure to dress for the weather.
20. Time commitment: 1-2 hours per month.
