SUMMIT ONLINE / new episode available HERE every Monday through July

Each Monday, we'll post a newly created YouTube playlist with engagement, worship and a message shared just for you. We're excited to share talks from on our summer theme, all about Jesus:

RED-LETTER JESUS // BLACK-LETTER JESUS

Ever seen one of those Bibles that prints all the things Jesus said in red? In between those red letters are the actions of Jesus, printed in black. During Jesus' time on earth, he said some really important things that exposed truth, challenged evil and invited people in. Jesus also did incredible things to help, heal and invite. This summer, we're taking a closer look at what Jesus said and what Jesus did—and why, if you let them, those red letters and black letters can change your life.

WEDNESDAY ZOOM RALLIES / June 17-July 29 / 7–8pm

Each Wednesday, we'll get together on one Zoom call to connect, have some fun, worship and have some discussion around the week's talk. USE THIS LINK to join the Zoom call all summer.

END-OF-YEAR BANQUET / Wednesday, August 5 / 6–8pm / Calvary–Roseville Campus

As with everything we plan, we will be making necessary adjustments to follow the Department of Health's most current guidelines. This may alter how we do this event, but we are optimistic that we'll be able to do something together on this date. Stay tuned for more info as the event approaches.

SUMMIT STUDIES

We care deeply about the pain our friends of color are experiencing in this season—and in so many seasons before. That's why this summer we've decided to focus our small group studies on two books we believe will help students better understand issues of race and care for our brothers, sisters and neighbors. We hope students will choose to join one of these opportunities to learn and grow together. If interested, email sam.townsend@calvarychurch.us or text 952.484.5337.

Book: STAMPED: Racism, Antiracism & You by Jason Reynolds and Ibram X. Kendi

When: Thursdays, 7–8:30pm from June 18–July 23

Led by Jenna and Andrew Cleveland

Where: On Zoom at THIS LINK

Remixed for teenagers from New York Best Times Seller "Stamped from the Beginning," this book is "not a history book" but will help you understand why so many are so frustrated and tired with current events concerning racial injustice. Through high school-level reading and meaningful conversation, this study is for all students who want to better understand a different perspective.

Book: DISUNITY IN CHRIST: Uncovering the Hidden Forces that Keep Us Apart by Christena Cleveland

When: Fridays, 7–8:30pm from June 19–July 24 (Does not meet July 3.)

Led by Trevor Limberg

Where: On Zoom at THIS LINK

Written for those who want to lead in ministry, this book looks at the dynamics that keep Christians apart, even when we know we should be united! From a Christian social scientist's perspective, this book will help you gain tools to overcome the hidden forces that divide us. With college-level reading, this study is for students who want to be challenged toward deeper engagement with others.
